

Arts North West Connect is an online membership based creative directory and arts trail administered by Arts North West, the Regional Arts Development Organisation for the New England North West.

Members include, but are not limited to: artists, art venues, historical buildings, tourism outlets, galleries, studios, workshops, festivals, art residencies, wineries that feature arts events, shop fronts and pop up shops, libraries, community centres, museums, restaurants and cafes that incorporate arts and public art.

Cultural tourism is steadily growing as an important industry, particularly in regional Australia. Visitors who take the time to stop off in one or many of the ANW Connect venues gain a unique insight into the diversity of arts, crafts and stories that the New England North West region of NSW has to offer.
